A. A. SMITH & BRO.

Sensible Money-Saving Pointers For Men.

Not what you pay for what you get, but what you get for what you pay—that should be the first consideration of every man who knows money at its true value.

Just because a man pays 20 or 25 dollars for a suit of clothes, or 4 or 5 dollars for a pair of shoes, that is no surety that he is getting exactly that amount of worth in the clothes or shoes.

The old idea that because a man paid a big price for a thing it would of necessity be extra good has been exploded time and again.

The man of today—the twentieth century man with intelligent ideas—knows that it's the quality of goods he gets for his money that really counts.

Absorb this: with some stores price makes quality—with this store quality makes the price. That is, we don't charge a man four dollars for a garment if the quality isn't up to that figure. We simply charge him precisely what the garment is worth, or in some cases even less than what it is actually worth.

Note well: there are times when, because of our excellent buying facilities, we are able to purchase in New York or Boston good quality goods at a price much under their real worth. When we do have such an opportunity our customers are given the benefit of it and treated to genuine bargains—bargains in the true sense of the term.

Just now and through vacation time a man needs light, comfortable clothes, hat, shoes and other accessories to add to his pleasure and make his work more endurable.

Suffice to say, we have all these things and at prices which will not hinder a man from purchasing.

Common sense commands attention everywhere and if the foregoing pointers appeal to you as candid truths, kindly step in today—during our June Bargain Sale—and let us become better acquainted to our mutual advantage.

There is one feature of Massac's theatre show that deserves especial credit. That feature is the piano playing by Mr. Scott Moulton. As a general rule, piano players at picture shows are mediocre, and sometimes worse; but Mr. Moulton is truly an artist, and one with an ear for music doesn't have to listen to his playing long to know it.

The Rev. W. R. Davenport visited friends in this city to-day, having come from Malden, Mass., to Berlin yesterday to officiate at the wedding of Prof. J. M. Tobitts and Miss Mabel Stewart. Mr. Davenport has been ill with bronchial pneumonia in Malden, where he was obliged to stop off while on his way to the Methodist general conference in Baltimore several weeks ago, and he has been at the home in Malden of his brother-in-law, the Rev. E. E. Reynolds, since that time. He is not yet fully recovered from the illness and will not resume preaching in Barton until the first of September.

TOO MANY SUITS

And the time to acknowledge it is before the season is past, when ladies can use them. The strike and other conditions make it necessary that we get the money out of these Suits and out of them now. The following will give you an idea as to what you may expect to see in this Half Price Sale.

LADIES' SUITS

It is very hard to describe a Suit and its quality, and then there is another thing about it, and that is style and fit.

We could not keep in motion one of the largest garment departments in Vermont if there was many things wrong about it.

These Suits are not of ancient designs and style, but the best that there is. The only thing that looks wrong is the price.

These are not castoffs from other stocks. They are our own Suits, the ones that you have been looking at and some have been anticipating their purchase at regular price. Now is your time to buy.

LADIES' SUITS

These are Tailored Suits that were $12.50, made of Panama, in fact this is a Suit made to sell for $15.00. Now at one-half of our less price. This means this Suit at but $7.50.

There is one thing to consider in buying these Suits and that is that our selling price was right in the first place, so that now half price means all and more than it says.

Ladies' Suits of fancy Panama, with braided coat. Skirt is pleated and has folds of same material a $20.00 Suit. Now at only $10.00.

There are some 60 of these this season's Suits to select from, so that you do not have to take the first that you see.

LADIES' SUITS

Ladies that bought of our better Suits when we had our close-out sale last season were the ones that were best pleased. Here are Suits from $20.00 up to $30.00.

$22.50 Suits that have been with us but a few days, made of very best materials in leading styles, now at but half price. That is only the price of a poor Suit, $11.25.

$27.50 and $30.00 Suits are our best—best for style, best for wear—Suits that are beautiful. Now at half price, $13.75 and $15.00.

Just compare prices of materials with these Suits and then allow a fair price for making. Cut that price in two and you have just about what these Suits are selling for.

These prices are much below cost. We are making such a loss on them that we will have to charge the cost of any slight alterations.
